

3.3 Device control

In device control, you can view the hardware information and control setting remotely. Below is the categories of device control.

- General: display the basic information of device, and can preform firmware update.
- Network: display the network information, such as IP address, MAC address.
- Display: for settiing the behavior of “Power & Sleep” & “Low blue light”.
- Security: set up settiwng lock, screen lock and configuration of wireless presentation.
- Logs: download device logs.
- Misc: command setting, set up reboot scheduling, NTP server.
- Wallpaper: upload background image of home screen.

